Botanical Garden Cienfuegos

With 97 hectares it is one of the oldest institutions of its kind on the island, founded in 1901 by Edwin F. Atkins and his wife. It was dedicated to the investigation and enhancement of sugar cane under the name: Harvard Botanical Station for Tropical Research and Sugar Cane Investigation, but later he started to bring tropical and rare species of plants from as far as India and China to plant in the garden. Today the garden has a large collection of tropical exotic plants (2000+ species) clustered in 670 genera and 125 botanical families. Among the most complete collections are orchids (400+), palms (230+), ficuses (65+) and bamboos (29). We can organise an expert guide who works in the garden to take you on a 1-2 hour private tour and explore regions of the gardens away from the tourist trail.

Boat tour at Laguna Guanaroca

The Laguna de Guanaroca-Punta Gavilanes Protected Area and Refuge, located in this province, is one of the countrys wonders and a source of amazement for all who visit. A garden of biodiversity, the area harbors curiosities like the Annona havanenses, a plant species once believed to be extinct, but rediscovered here 25 years ago. The areas dense vegetation creates a harmonious natural tangle that includes wild mamoncillo, mahogany, calabash, yellow mastic, buttonwood, brasilettia, oak, copperwood, among other many xeromorphic species - more than 70 - in this coastal forest.

Performance and exchange with Cienfuegos Choir at Museo Provincial

The city of Cienfuegos is home to the Cantores de Cienfuegos, a choir that has existed for many generations. They are one of the leading choral ensembles in Cuba, and their impressive a capella repertoire has wowed audiences all over the globe.

Kayak on Cienfuegos Bay

Paddle the tranquil waters of one of the most important ports of Cuba, enjoy the panoramic view of Punta Gorda, and wonder at the eclectic architecture of the Pearl of the south.

Not for under 12 years old. This experience lasts from 2 to 3 hours. Remember to bring sunscreen, hat, sunglasses, and comfortable shoes... And your camera.

Paddle the southern coast of Cienfuegos

The southern coast of Cuba serves up a wealth of waters easily explored by kayak. Inland, Lake Hanabanilla takes centre stage: a vast reservoir cradled between the peaks of the Escambray Mountains, which also offers great hiking. But the highlight is surely negotiating the turquoise waters and limestone cliffs of Guajimico, a slice of the Caribbean Sea riddled with plenty of hidden caves and coves to paddle.
