DAY 1-2

WELCOME TO HAVANA

Your adventure begins with a VIP welcome in Havana before a scenic drive into the lush landscapes of Viñales. Upon arrival, settle into Finca Villaverde, where rolling hills and endless tobacco fields set the tone for a slower pace of life. In the evening, enjoy a countryside dinner at El Cuajani, a perfect introduction to Cuba's rustic charm. The next morning, immerse yourself in the region's legendary tobacco culture with our expert guide, Duniel. Visit local farms, watch skilled hands roll world-class cigars, and learn the secrets of this time-honored tradition. After a farm-to-table lunch at Finca Tungasuk, return to Havana and check in at Estancia Bohemia in the heart of the city. The evening offers an intellectual exchange with diplomat Carlos Alzugaray, a refined dinner at the iconic La Guarida, and VIP access to Havana's trendiest art and music venue, Fábrica de Arte Cubano.

Explore the magic of Old Havana, where colonial facades and cobblestone streets whisper tales of pirates and revolutionaries. Meet Cuba's most celebrated writer, Leonardo Padura, and gain insight into Havana beyond the postcards. A gourmet lunch at Grados leads into an exclusive art tour with curator Sachie Hernández, where you'll visit private studios and meet some of Cuba's most exciting contemporary artists. Later, engage in a conversation with legendary photographer Roberto Salas, followed by an intimate jazz performance by Yasek Manzano and dinner at La Cocina de Lilliam. The next day, enjoy VIP access to a private Acosta Danza rehearsal, where Cuba's most talented contemporary dancers bring movement to life. Then, step into a classic convertible for a Hemingway-inspired tour, stopping at his favorite haunts and historic sites. A leisurely lunch at Costa Vino is followed by a visit to Social 1916, a stylish cocktail lounge. As night falls, a fine-dining experience at Cinco Sentidos sets the tone for a sophisticated evening, followed by string music and cocktails at Claxon.

Journey along Cuba's southern coast to Cienfuegos, known for its stunning bay and French-inspired architecture. A guided city tour uncovers its hidden gems before a seaside lunch at Finca del Mar. By evening, arrive in Trinidad, where the historic Mansión Alameda welcomes you. Enjoy a candle lit dinner at Sol Ananda before immersing yourself in the soulful melodies of Plaza Mayor's Trova musicians. The following day, explore Trinidad's UNESCO-listed streets, where colorful facades and cobblestone alleys transport you to another era. Visit the Sugar Plantation Ruins to uncover the island's colonial past, followed by a rustic lunch at The Bee Hide Ranchón. The afternoon brings a deep dive into Trinidad's artisan scene, meeting local craftsmen and artists. As night falls, dine at Los Conspiradores, where the fusion of history and modern creativity is reflected in every dish.

Set sail on a private boat to Cayo Macho, a secluded Caribbean heaven of white sand and crystal-clear waters. The day is yours to swim, snorkel, or simply relax under the warm Cuban sun with a cocktail in hand. Enjoy a seaside feast featuring the day's freshest catch before returning to Trinidad. The evening is a sensory delight at El Ojo del Toro, where music, ambiance, and exquisite flavors bring the perfect close to an unforgettable day.

Enroute to Havana, stop in Santa Clara, a city rich in revolutionary history. A guided tour reveals the stories behind its famous landmarks before lunch at Suite Florencia.

Back in Havana, check in at Estancia Bohemia one last time. Your final evening is a celebration of Cuba's essence—dining at Adastra, followed by an exclusive rum tasting at a hidden speakeasy, where each sip tells a story of heritage and craftsmanship. On your last morning, embrace the rhythm of Havana one last time—whether it's a leisurely coffee in a sun lit plaza, a stroll through the city's vibrant streets, or a quiet moment in a hidden art studio. A private transfer ensures a seamless departure, but the warmth of Cuba will linger in your heart long after you've said goodbye.
