COLONIAL HAVANA, CULTURE & TROPICANA

Immerse yourself in Havana's heritage with a morning walking tour of Old Havana's colonial squares, led by a local historian. The cultural discovery continues with a hands-on pottery lesson, followed by a lively cooking and mixology class where you'll master Cuban cuisine. After a private salsa lesson, you'll cruise to dinner in a vintage convertible at sunset. The night concludes with premium seats at the world-famous Tropicana Cabaret for its dazzling Vegas-style performance.

You will embark on a breathtaking hike to the Salto de Soroa waterfall and the Mirador viewpoint, which offers panoramic views of the verdant landscape. After a visit to Cuba's largest orchid garden, home to over 700 species, you will return to Havana. The evening is yours to experience the city's modern culture with VIP access to the avant-garde art and music venue, Fábrica de Arte Cubano.
